The Munin Conference on Scholarly Publishing

Call for presentations and posters

Submissions are invited for the 14th Munin Conference on Scholarly Publishing, to be held in Tromsø 27–28 November 2019 at UiT The Arctic University of Norway. The Munin Conference is an annual event on scholarly publishing and communication, primarily revolving around open access, open data and other aspects of open science.

This year’s keynotes will be:

- Arianna Becerril-García, Executive Director of Redalyc, Mexico
- Alexander Refsum Jensenius, Associate Professor, University of Oslo, Norway
- Aileen Fyfe, Professor of Modern History, University of St. Andrews, UK
- Carl Björkman, Head of Nordics at Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, UK

We hereby welcome abstract submissions for presentations and posters for this year’s conference, on topics including but not limited to:

- Open Science case studies
- Research assessment and evaluation
- Prestige in scholarly publishing
- Perspectives from early career researchers
- Scholar-led and community-driven publishing initiatives
- Funders’ commitment to open dissemination of research
- Effects of transformative agreements
- Emerging trends in scholarly communication

Please indicate whether your contribution will be a long (30 minutes incl. Q&A) or a short (20 minutes incl. Q&A) presentation, and/or a poster. We encourage researchers to submit.

Abstracts must be submitted via Septentrio Conference Series. Please read Submission guidelines.

The program committee will select contributions on the basis of the quality of the individual abstract, as well as relevance for the overall conference program.

Important dates:
Deadline for abstract submission: 18 August 2019
Notification of acceptance: 4 September 2019
Conference to be held: 27–28 November 2019
