

4th Lunch Seminar 23.05.13

12.00-13.15 Kristine Bonnevis House, Blindern – Auditorium 2

Life after PhD - Where do people work?

The PhD-forum at the Department of Biosciences in collaboration with Biostruct invites to a spring seminar-series about life after the PhD. People that have taken a PhD in life science, and now work outside of academia come and tell about their experience. What have they done after the PhD, where do they work, and how did they end up there? What kind of skills apart from the scientific background has been valuable to them?

Program:

12.00 - Coffee and cakes

12.15 -12.45 Talk by Gunnar Fimland - Xellia Pharmaceuticals

12.45 -13.15 Talk by Kim Are Livgard - Zacco

13.15 -13.45 Talk by Åsmund K. Røhr - Keep-it Technologies/UiO

Gunnar Fimland has his Dr. Scient from the Department of Biochemistry, under the supervision of Jon Nissen-Meyer.

Kim Are Livgard has his Cand. Scient from the Norwegian Radium hospital, under the supervision of Kirsten Sandvig.

Åsmund Kjendseth Røhr has his PhD from the Department of Molecular Biosciences, under the supervision of Karl Kristoffer Andersson.

The talk is open for all interested participants. Coffee and cakes will be served from 12.00.

Norwegian Graduate school in Structural Biology -A collaboration between 5 universities

