Guidelines for authors at IndigMEC 2017

IndigMEC welcomes papers and posters about research in the field of Indigenous Mathematics Education, specifically culturally responsive education. Empirical, theoretical and developmental papers are welcome; surveys, observational, ethnographic, experimental or quasi-experimental studies, case studies. We encourage authors to check the aims of the conference for further information.

Limits for the extended abstracts is one page Times New Roman size 12. References in size 10. The abstract has to be written in English or a Sámi language.

All papers go through an open review process, where those who submit papers are asked to review one or two papers from other authors. Guidelines for the review process are found on the conference website. Poster proposals are reviewed by the Program committee.

Proceedings from IndigMEC will be published as a special issue of a scientific journal or as a book.

Once an extended abstract is accepted, the authors should look at the checklist for authors for writing the paper.

Each paper should include:

- A statement about the focus of the paper: what is the question or the problem that is treated.
- An indication of the theoretical framework of (or theoretical constructs used in) the study reported, including references to the related literature.
- An indication of the methodology used (including problem, goals and/or research questions; criteria for the selection of participants or sampling; data collection instruments and procedures; data analysis procedures)
- An indication on the scientific and cultural context in which this study is embedded (explaining crucial assumptions and the possible contingency of the relevance of the study for a specific cultural context)
- Results
- Final remarks or conclusions, indicating the significance of the paper.

Submit the papers in Word, Times New Roman font size 12, references in size 10. Maximum paper size is 8 000 words. Please embed any figures, diagrams, or photographs in the paper together with appropriate captions. Provide accurate and complete bibliographical information. All manuscript citations should be listed at the end of the paper and must adhere to the APA Publication Style.
