

TUNDRA workshop 2-5 March 2012 in Tromsø

2 March

9:15 Short reminder: overview of the project Vera

Phase 1: data collection and analyses until now

(This section is presentation of work in progress which we would like to discuss; there is thus not a strict schedule. We will see how far we get, and continue on Saturday morning, if necessary)

Governance triangle with respect to industrial development Else Grete

Implementation of the biodiversity action plan Polina

Harvest: the data Jen

Harvest: management and value, preliminary results Per

Harvest: regulations and harvest number in moose Jen

Harvest: people, wolves and reindeer Dorothee

Governance systems Vera

TUNDRAscape: choice of model settlements Dorothee/ Per

TUNDRAscape: human impact, analysis and preliminary results Alma

TUNDRAscape: vegetation, analysis and preliminary results Hans

13:00 lunch

Background for phase 2

14:00 The biodiversity law in Norway Ole Kristian

14:40 Hunting resource management in Russia Konstantin

15:20 Coffee break

15:40 Working with local residents in the Canadian Arctic: humans – bears Doug

16:20 Diagnosing CPR problems in the Saami pastoral system in Finnmark Vera

17:00 Working with local people in the Alaskan Arctic: subsistence Gary

3 March

10:00 Phase 1: data collection and analyses until now: continued

Questions about NDVI, productivity and reindeer numbers

Torkild

Interview guide and interview planning

16:00 Project justification regarding local residents: Why is the project interesting for them and why should they participate in it?

4 March

10:00 Interview guide and interview planning

16:00 summing up and discussion with Terry and Gary

5 march

9:15 Socio-economic conditions in arctic communities

Margrethe

How to continue to analyse data from stage 1?

The main questions in the project

Vera

12:00 lunch

Continued discussion about further analyses

16:00 summing up and discussion with Terry and Gary